

WOOLVERSTONE FROM THE AIR - 1944

2nd March 1944 - Photo taken 2nd March 1944

The photograph was taken by RAF 541 Squadron, formed as a photographic reconnaissance squadron in WW2. This image shows the entirety of Woolverstone Park and some of the village.

- Various arrangements of Nissen huts in front and behind the Hall
- Base for two new Nissen huts
- Woolverstone beach and Cat House, embarkation hard. N.K.
- Some indication of tents having been pitched alongside the footpath to Chelmondiston
- 4 small landing craft at the "hard"
- Oil storage tanks, camouflaged with irregular boundaries
- Note: no lower road from the Hall
- B1456 – High Road. Mid right to top left.
- The full length of "Tank Road", now Cat House Lane
- Walled garden complex
- Building in the middle of Forty-acre field, which is made up of smaller fields
- Tradesmen's track running parallel to Nelson's Avenue, adjacent to forty-acre Field
- Guard House tucked into the trees, 100m south-east of St Michael's